APPROPRIATE ATTIRE - SPORT COAT RECOMMENDED

Since its inception in 1997, SWC has served over 7,600 children (ages 5-18) in the United States, Mexico, and Nicaragua by providing them with thousands of pounds of sports equipment, as well as sports skills training and mentoring programs through its “Communities Play” Program.

The Sports for the World's Children Foundation believes that all children need love, encouragement, and the opportunity to grow. We also believe that they need to play . . . just play . . . and BE children. Through the efforts of Sports for the World's Children, children with limited resources are given the opportunity they deserve to play and learn and grow.
